

Hand Stripping

Hand Stripping is a grooming technique used for certain breeds with wiry or harsh coats.

It involves plucking the dead hairs from the dogs coat rather than clipping them.

This technique will promote healthy growth of new hairs.

Hand Stripping will help preserve the characteristic texture and colour of the coat.

It prevents matting and promotes better air circulation.